NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

PAID STUDY -- Must be 18 years or older.

Name of study: Tutor-Student Dynamics

Purpose of study: To understand how tutors and students interact with one another.

Name of experimenter: Katherine Thorson

Name of faculty supervisor: Tessa West

Location of study: Meyer 5th floor

Specific requirements, e.g., Participants should be a student or a tutor with an accompanying student or tutor who regularly participate in tutoring sessions together. Neither the student nor the tutor can have a doctor's diagnosis of a heart arrhythmia, heart murmur or high blood pressure/hypertension, take prescribed beta-blockers, have a pacemaker, have a body mass index greater than 30, or be pregnant.

Type of activity, e.g., Tutors and students will engage in tutoring sessions as they normally would. During the session, we will record physiological and audiovisual data and collect saliva samples. Following the session, participants will be asked to complete survey(s) with follow-up questions regarding the tutoring session.

Approximate length of time: 1.5 to 2 hours
Payment: $20
